A FACT PROVEN.

Should Conviface Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit innoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Accept no substitute. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

One Hundred Thousand Dollar Steal.

After a pursuit of four weeks by the police of three cities, central office detectives, in New York, aided by operatives of a private agency and Detective Lawrence, of Minneapolis, arrested Thomas J. Wainwright, describing himself as a lawyer of Boston, who is charged with robbing the residence of Dr. Nicholas J. Pinault, of Minneapolis, of jewelry, silverware, pictures, and securities to the value of $100,000. The police say that Wainwright, who is twenty-eight years old, and apparently a man of excellent education, is known by a dozen aliases, and is one of the most accomplished criminals in the country. Dr. Pinault is one of the wealthiest citizens of Minneapolis. Dr. Pinault usually spends his winters in Europe or in the South.

Just before starting for Pass Christian, Miss., last winter, the doctor engaged as caretaker of his Minneapolis home a young man, who said that he was Thomas J. Wainwright, and that he was a lawyer temporarily out of practice. Wainwright's credentials were satisfactory, and Dr. Pinault turned his mansion and its valuable contents over to him without hesitation. Then the Pinault family departed for the south.

Toward the end of last February, Dr. Pinault was astonished to receive from his Minneapolis bankers a letter asking why it was that he wanted to sell certain valuable stocks and bonds that had just been offered through a Minneapolis firm of brokers. The doctor knew that he had left the securities safely locked up in his safe deposit vault and he started at once for Minneapolis to investigate.

There he learned that his caretaker had disappeared, and with him practically everything of value in the Pinault mansion as well as the contents of the doctor's safe in the deposit vault.

Cardinal Gibbons's Sermon.

Cardinal Gibbons preached his monthly sermon to a large congregation at the Baltimore Cathedral last Sunday morning. He took the study and imitation of Christ as the subject of his discourse. His text was: "Which of you shall convict me of sin?" (John, viii. 46)

The Cardinal among other things said: "Never could Moses or the prophets or any high priest of the old law, from the first down to the last of the line, be able to say to any of their hearers what Christ says today: 'Which of you shall convict me of sin?' Never could any teachers of the new law, from the apostles down to the last sovereign pontiff, dare to affirm 'I am without sin.' The very best of us have some frailities, some shortcomings, some blemishes, which tarnish and obscure the mirror of the soul. Christ alone has no apologies to make. He alone is above reproach. No matter how fast we run on the path of Christian perfection, he is ever before us urging us on to the goal of victory. No matter how high we may soar into the regions of spiritual light, he is still hovering above us, inviting us to ascend higher. Make yourselves familiar with the words and deeds of your Master by the frequent perusal of the Gospels. The Gospels contain the best narrative of Christ because they are inspired, and are not diluted by human speculation. Christ will be your light in darkness, he will be your companion in solitude, your rest in weariness of spirit. He will be your teacher in doubt, your physician in sickness of heart, your strength in weakness, your joy and consolation in sorrow and affliction. He will be your life in death."

Assessment Law Upheld.

In the Law and Equity Court of Richmond Saturday, Judge Ingram handed down a far-reaching decision in the suit of Charles E. Whitlock and others vs. O. A. Hawkins, commissioners of revenue. This is one branch of the litigation attacking the recent land assessments throughout the State. Should the complainants win their point, the most serious complication will follow in every part of the Commonwealth. Judge Ingram refused the injunction, which was sought as a medium for checking the work of the commissioner under the new assessment figures. The complainants attacked both the legislative act of December 10, 1903, which provided for the assessment of 1905, and also the curative act approved March 17, 1906, which sought to validate assessments and other acts done under the first-mentioned statute. It was also contended that the law authorizing the new levy lacked a constitutional vote. The case will be later passed upon by the Court of Appeals. A special session for the purpose will be held this morning.

Charged with Inciting Incendiarism.

A sensation developed in Norfolk yesterday in the trial of the cases against the alleged gang of firebugs who have operated in Norfolk county. It was brought out by the commonwealth that "Bud" Savage, in his confession made the day of his arrest, said that "Ben" Long, a well-known saloonkeeper, gave him, William Turner and James Ryder whisky to drink if they would go out and start the fires. The witnesses who made this statement were Deputy Sheriff Huybert and Detective Adkins. Counsel for the three men objected to the statement, on the ground that it was not admissable under the law. His objection was overruled, however, by Magistrate Peed, who forced the witnesses to state the name of the person who Savage had said gave him and the other two men whisky. The accused were held for the grand jury. No further arrests have been made.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular.

"Mothers buy it for croupy children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs and elderly people buy it for la grippe," says Moore Bros., Eldon, Iowa. "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands." There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be procured for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 3, 1906.

MAYOR JACOB WINNE CLUTE, of Schenectady, N. Y., has taken upon himself to free the city of barrel organs which the Mayor believes fill the air with murderous renditions of popular and unpopular songs; of Dutch bands that make new agony of last season's ragtime, and of street pianos that are soul disturbing as well as ear offending. Mayor Clute says the street music in Schenectady in the past has been trying to the nervous system and destroying of all sense of harmony and melody among children who are endeavoring to learn the divine symphony in the public schools. He says it is a waste of good money to try to teach the school children the heavenly gift of song and have a pleuro-pneumonia organ assault their ears in the streets with a battered ragtime air. The Mayor has ordered the Police Department to arrest every street musician found making mercenary discord without a license. And in order to get a license organgrinders and others have to go to the City Hall and play a selection before the Mayor and his secretary, Prof. James Reagles Truax, and they are to judge whether or not they are to be allowed to ply their vocation. Mayor Clute desires to enforce the following code: Curfew, no peanut stands on the sidewalks, no red light, licenses for peddling to none but American citizens, signs at all street corners, no shouting by newsboys on Sunday morning, no standing on street cars, no railroad passes for city officials and employees, no graft, no concert or dance halls, policemen all at least six feet high, no blind beggars, all electric signs to come down, no pushcart men, no agnostic lectures, no anarchistic meetings and no Sunday parades.

DOWIE is gradually passing into a total eclipse. His career has been meteoric and lucrative, but he has at last reached the end of his rope and has been deposed as a religious leader, suspended from membership in the church he founded, shorn of his temporal possessions, as far as they are situated in Zion City, the home of his church, and warned to accept the situation quietly, lest worse things befall him. A message has been sent to the deposed leader protesting against his extravagance, hypocrisy, misrepresentations, exaggerations, tyranny and injustice and he is informed that he has been suspended from office and membership for polygamous teaching and other grave charges. He is requested to quietly retire as further interference will precipitate complete exposure. The last act in Dowie's career is akin to that of most pious frauds. The people with whom they consort become acquainted with their frailties and impositions, and when friction occurs their exposure maturally follows. We are told that when "one of the twelve" realized the enormity of an act which has given him unenviable notoriety, he said he had "betrayed the innocent blood." He had no exposures to make, although he had been in a position to have noted anything amiss that could have been urged against the Great Teacher. Dowie's disciples, however, appear to have seen much amiss in him.

IT IS SAID fully 7,000 people, whites predominating, Sunday crowded all the streets in the neighborhood of St. Matthew's Colored Baptist Church, in Baltimore, where the body of Isaac Winder, the executed negro murderer, lay in state, preparatory to the funeral, which occurred at 1 o'clock. For one hour before the funeral the doorway to the church was blocked, the crowd being kept in check by the policemen, who allowed them to go in slowly and make their exit at the rear. A saucer was placed at the foot of the coffin, and very few passed without depositing a coin in it. It is estimated that the collections have amounted to $650 at least. There have in these last days been many methods conceived for the purpose of raising money in churches, but the above seems original and successful. It is hoped, however, that the custom will not take root, or there may be a scramble among the overzealous as to which church will be allowed the privilege of exhibiting the bodies of felons after they shall have passed out of the executioners' hands. In fact the hint given is fraught with great possibilities, as a condemned may may, under such an order of things, realize something before he falls through the trap by disposing of his remains to the highest bidder.

IN the last of his series of letters from Washington, Lincoln Steffens concludes that the corruption of this government is not due to particular bad men but the "good and respectable" citizens who are in on the graft. He declares that the Treasury Department has systematically distributed money deposits to banking institutions which are liberal in contributing to campaign funds and which do not pay a cent for the use of the money. It will be remembered that Senator Tillman made this charge on the floor of the Senate and offered to named several banks if a denial of his charge were made.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, April 3.

Urged at every turn to do all things in its power to correct abuses in the transportation operations of the country, the members of the National Association of Railway Commissioners have not hesitated to accept complimentary passes while in Washington for the eighteenth convention of that association, now in session. Of course these passes are good only over the street car lines in the District of Columbia and on the Washington, Alexandria and Mt. Vernon Electric Railway Company. Instead of issuing pass books this line agreed to honor the badge of the association for transportation on its lines. Much discussion has arisen over the opening address to the convention by President W. G. Smith. He took the position that the present laws are sufficient to correct any evils which may exist in transportation and all it needs is an efficient execution. Should additional powers be granted to any one, he would have them given to the courts, which, according to his speech, should be given the power practically to fix the rate. It is claimed that the address does not represent the attitude of the association. The taxation of railways was the principal topic of discussion this morning at the session of the convention.

The Massachusetts republicans of the House held another meeting today to consider the calling of a caucus, on tariff revision. It was decided not to bring the matter before the republican caucus which meets tomorrow night, for the reorganization of the republican congressional committee, but to continue the effort to secure the requisite 50 signatures for a call. It was determined not to abandon the agitation, although Massachusetts republicans admit that the prospects for success or not glittering.

Baron Rosen, the Russian Ambassador, today presented to the State Department a note stating that the Russian government had agreed with the government of the Netherlands that The Second Hague Peace Conference should assemble in the first half of July. The note encloses a resume of the subjects which the Czar proposes to submit to the conference for discussion.

This was another beautiful day at Benning, the weather being all that could be desired. Everybody was there and the races are becoming more popular and interesting as the season advances.

William Loeb, jr., Secretary to the President, is laid up with injuries received by a fall from his horse yesterday.

Rev. Edward Everett Hale celebrated his eighty-fourth birthday anniversary today by opening the Senate with a prayer for universal peace.

The President sent the following nominations to the Senate today: To be collector of the district of Cherrystone, Va., Clarence G. Smithers; to be auditor for the Postoffice Department, Ernst G. Timme, of Wisconsin; to be auditor for the State and other Departments, Caleb R. Layton of Delaware; to be deputy auditor for the Postoffice Department, Charles H. Keating, of Ohio.

Secretary of War Taft now has before him for final settlement the proposition of establishing either at Buffalo, New York, or at Fort Niagara, N. Y., an immense brigade post for regular troops. The question which is now actually before the Secretary is whether the post at Fort Niagara will be enlarged for a regiment or a brigade. The chances are that the Niagara post will be made to accommodate a full regiment of troops, but that for the present it will not be made a brigade post.

The President announces the appointment of Wm. H. DeLacy as judge of the Juvenile Court of the District of Columbia. He is a native of the District of Columbia and is at present employed as a clerk in the Interior Department. The appointment was sent to the Senate today.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, April 3.

SENATE.

When Mr. Tillman submitted his daily communication relative to railway abuses, Mr. Hale interrupted the reading.

"I think the Senator has got even," he explained, in asking the South Carolinian to forego the reading of the paper.

Mr. Hale had reference to the recent sarcastic challenge of Mr. Scott, that Mr. Tillman should keep the Senate posted daily about railway abuses.

"This is a flash light upon another phase of railway discrimination," replied Mr. Tillman, who declared that if he were humored this time he would at least take under consideration the suggestions of the Senator from Maine that he forego similar requests.

Mr. Hale withdrew his objection and the reading continued.

The communication was from C. W. Eeds, of Ballston, Spa, N. Y.; and he charged that the Delaware & Hudson Railway Company was crowding him out of the retail coal business.

He said that ever since the company had established a coal packer in his town he could not get coal from the company, or have it shipped over that line from wholesale dealers, and that the railway company had cut the price below what it was in Albany, Troy, and Schenectady. "The crime of stealing a man's business," he wrote, "is infinitely greater, blacker, and more heinous, than stealing part of a man's income."

At the conclusion of the appeal, Mr. Tillman was recognized.

"I merely want to say," he explained, "that this is as a voice in the night, appealing for help from the operations of one of the five railway corporations which have an absolute monopoly of the anthracite coal production."

Mr. Bailey introduced an amendment to the railroad rate regulation bill, which provides that express and sleeping cars companies shall be considered as common carriers.

After agreeing to the conference report on the naval academy bill the railway rate bill was taken up and Mr. Long took the floor.

Senator Long spoke on the railroad rate bill. He took decided stand against the anti-injunction amendment proposed by Senator Bailey. He said he did not believe that Congress had the power to take from the courts their present authority to grant temporary injunctions. "A person," said he, "can no more be deprived temporarily of his property without due process of law and without just compensation than he can be so deprived permanently."

HOUSE.

The House was the scene of action today of hostilities between the States of Mississippi and Louisiana on the one hand and Texas on the other over the national quarantine bill. This measure appropriates $500,000 for the suppression of epidemics and makes the power of the marine hospital service in establishing quarantine lines supreme over that of the State authorities. The yellow fever epidemic of last summer prompted the measure. Mississippi and Louisiana members are for it. The Texas delegation moved to action by the adoption of a resolution by the Texas legislature declaring the measure to be a usurpation of State rights, led the opposition. To bring the measure before the House the rules committee today reported a rule making the bill privileged, and providing for a vote at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The rule was adopted by a vote of 109 to 32, and the bill was taken up.

The determination of Patrick Dolan to hold on as president of the Pittsburg district is causing complications, and some mineowners hesitate to sign the agreements submitted by the special scale committee named in Indianapolis.

It is now said that the union label will be extended to the political field. Candidates for the House of Representatives will be required to fix their fences to comport with labor union ideas, or they will be antagonized by the American Federation of Labor.

Charges connecting Winfield Scott Hancock, son of Col. John Hancock and nephew of Gen. Winfield Scott Hancock, with the mysterious death of Emma Smallwood, which occurred October 14 last, were investigated by the grand jury at Upper Marlboro yesterday.

When Emperor William visited Crefeld, Germany, in 1908 a group of girls complained to him that they had no dancing partners and begged him to send a regiment of cavalry there, which he did yesterday, much to the joy of the people of the town, especially the girls. The city, which is the center of the silk and velvet industry, was gaily decorated for the occasion.

Reports from various points show that the order of President Mitchell to stop work in the mines has been generally obeyed; that the tie-up in the anthracite region is complete, only one mine being operated, and that many bituminous operators are signing the scale, companies representing an annual output of 37,000,000 tons having already done so in the Pittsburg district.

Gov. Folk, through Warden Matt Hall, of the Missouri penitentiary, has leased a mine near Waverley, from which coal will be mined during the present strike in sufficient quantities to supply the State institutions with fuel. The miners at Waverley are paid more than the regular scale and do not want to strike. If they should be forced to go out Warden Hall said yesterday that there would be no difficulty in operating the mine, if the State is forced to resort to that extremity.

Mrs. Roosevelt and her children, in company with Minister Morgan and Secretary Steinhart, who had called on Mrs. Roosevelt on board the Mayflower, yesterday visited President Palma at the palace in Havana. Subsequently the party, with the exception of Mr. Morgan, took a walk on Obispo street, one of the principal business thoroughfares of the city, going as far as the Prado. In the afternoon the party visited Morro Castle, at the entrance of the harbor and across the bay from the city.

A dispatch from Charlotte, N. C., says that in accordance with a notice given 10 days ago 30 High Point furniture and glass factories yesterday locked out all their employes who belong to labor unions. About 600 men and boys are idle, and some of the factories are considerably handicapped, although none were forced to shut down. The factories received about 50 applications from new men yesterday. There is no sign of trouble. Several representatives of the various union headquarters are on the ground.

It is currently reported that Mr. Perry Belmont and Mr. Thomas F. Ryan have signified their willingness to give money this fall to secure the re-election to Congress of the "conservative" democrats who are now in that body, and that they will render financial assistance in the campaigns of "conservative" democrats who seek to win seats in districts now republican. But they are reported to have said outright that not a penny of theirs is to be used in the canvass of a democratic congressional candidate who is one of Mr. Hearst's "radicals."

The court review amendment to the railroad rate bill agreed upon Saturday by certain Senators in conference with President Roosevelt was presented in the Senate yesterday by Senator Long, of Kansas, who proceeded to make a speechregarding it. He read from decisions of the Supreme Court showing that the power of the federal government to regulate interstate commerce is equal to the power of a State to regulate its domestic commerce, and contended that if a state can fix rates, then Congress could do the same in the regulation of interstate commerce.

The General Assembly of Maryland for the session of 1906 came to an end last night amid scenes of confusion and in the presence of galleries crowded with men and women, while every seat on the floor of both houses was occupied. There was almost a continuous session from 10 a. m. until midnight. The Haman-Seth oyster leasing and oyster culture bill finally passed both branches of the legislature and was signed by the Governor. Under this bill the oyster culture is to follow a complete survey of the Chesapeake bay and its tributaries to determine the natural beds and barren bottoms.

Methodist Conferences.

At yesterday morning's session in Baltimore of the Baltimore annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Cumberland, Md., was selected as the place of meeting for the conference next year. The date of the conference will be fixed by the presiding bishop.

An important matter was the provision for a commission to fix a boundary line between the Baltimore and West Virginia conferences. This commission will be composed of five members from each conference, and the members to represent the Baltimore conference will probably be announced by Bishop Wilson today. This commission became necessary through the taking over of the Virginia conference and the action of the commission in fixing the boundary line will be final.

At Cumberland, Md., yesterday, Staunton was chosen by the Baltimore conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South as the next place of meeting.

Rev. David E. Bush, D. D., Staunton, and Rev. E. V. Regester, of Baltimore, were elected alternates to the General Conference.

The report of the Conference missionary treasurer was read and accepted, as was the report of the board of finance. The latter demonstrated that the districts were behind in their assessments, but that there was a general increase over the amount received the year previous.

The report of the church extension board was read and adopted. All the districts reported increases in funds, except the Baltimore district.

The following assessments for church extension were made for 1906-1907. Baltimore district, $656; East Baltimore district, $547; Lewisburg district, $538; Moorefield district, $488; Roanoke district, $698; Rockingham district, $650; Washington district, $885; Winchester district, $675. Prospects for Peace Remote.

New York, April 3.—Prospects for peace in the hard coal fields seem remote today, and there is little likelihood that the joint conference of the operators and miners, which meets at noon, at the Jersey Central building, will result in an adjustment of the differences unless the attitude of both sides undergoes a great change. The operators this morning say they will not yield an inch in their position, but are willing to sign an agreement to continue operations under the award of the anthracite commission for another term of years. The miners will absolutely refuse to enter into another agreement until they come under the commission's award but are willing to modify their original demands for the sake of peace. How far their modifications will go is a matter of speculation, for Mr. Mitchell would not discuss the matter at all this morning, but it is understood that the miners' scale committee have prepared an irreducible mimimum which will waive all the original demands and make a demand for an eight hour day. This will mean an increase in wages in many instances and give the outside men what they most desire. President Baer, of the Reading, takes a gloomy view of the situation and believes that nothing will come of the conference. The reply to the miners will probably not be made today, but will be given tomorrow.

Shamokin, Pennsylvania, April 3.—All the miners in this region again remained away from the mines today pending the result of the deliberation between their leaders and the coal companies in New York. Everything remains very quiet and the men express themselves as being very confident that the operators will grant concessions of some kind, sufficient to again re-establish friendly and satisfactory relations with their employees.

New York, April 3.—Exactly at the hour of noon today the sub-committee of the anthracite scale committee, composed of John Mitchell, President of the United Mine Workers, the three district presidents, and the three secretaries of the union in the anthracite region, entered the offices of the Grand Trunk Line Association in the Jersey Central Building, and there met the operators' committee of seven, headed by George F. Baer. The meeting on both sides was cordial. Mr. Baer shook hands with Mr. Mitchell, and then he, and the other operators' representatives and the miners' representatives exchanged greetings all around. The doors were later closed, and the momentous conference was on. Previous to the meeting Mitchell said he had not one word of hope or fear to say regarding the situation. Both the representatives of operators and miners met separately this morning and prepared their arrangements for carrying out the battle in conference.

Scenes in Miners' Convention

Pittsburg, April 3.—The miners' convention convened this morning with Patrick Dolan and Frank Feehan, the newly elected President, present and prepared to act as chairman. Dolan, while the delegates were yet drifting into the hall, mounted the platform and began to call the meeting to order. Feehan, foreseeing a clash, declined to take the chair, and the convention, after S. A. Wetzel a delegate from Brownsville, had been placed in the chair, elected him chairman amid the protests of Dolan. The greatest excitement followed. Both men were armed with gavels and each claimed recognition. Motion followed motion amid cries of "Put him out," referring to Dolan. Delegate Clark, of Moon Run, moved that Patrick Dolan be expelled from the convention, and the motion was carried without a dissenting vote. But Dolan refused to be expelled and when a committee dragged the table from beneath his gavel he rapped for order upon the floor. A hundred men began to yell and the crowd advanced on Dolan, calling the district president a "traitor," and accused him of "selling them out." and half a dozen men rushed forward to execute Weizel's order, but Dolan retreated to the wall brandishing his gavel threateningly. Finally the disturbance was quelled, and, despite the fact that Dolan shouted at every person who rose to his feet, ordering him to "address the legal chair," the convention succeeded in passing a motion to adjourn for an hour until Dolan could be ejected. President Dolan insists that Frank Feehan, the newly elected president of the district, is not even a member of the Mineworkers of America, and says that until the convention recognizes him as chairman he will not allow it to transact any business. He has one or two pugnacious followers among the delegates and the rupture is likely to develop into an open fight before the day is over.

After successfully defending his position in the chair for more than two hours, Dolan was finally dragged from the platform, where he had taken his stand, and forcibly ejected from the room.

Fully fifty per cent. of the operators who signed the scale yesterday have their men at work today, and the other 50 per cent. will have their mines working tomorrow. The miners are paying not the slightest heed to President Dolan's orders not to begin work today.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 3.—Assistant barn boss Titus, and breaker engineer Thomas Tague, employes at the Fort Colliery were assaulted by a gang of Italian strikers, while on their way to work this morning. Tague escaped with slight injuries, but Titus was badly beaten, and had to be carried to his home. This is the first trouble in the valley since the suspension began.

American Athletes Sail.

New York, April 3.—The thirty two representative American athletes who are to compete in the international Olympia games to be held in Athens from April 22 to May 2, the greatest sporting event in the history of the world, sailed for Naples today on board the North German Lloyd steamer Barbarossa. The modern Americans will run and jump on the same ground over which the famous athletes of ancient Rome sped centuries ago. In the shadow of the Pantheon a modern stadium, costing millions, has been built on the ruins of the ancient one. It is a huge horseshoe of stone capable of seating 75,000 persons. The steep hillsides afford a view for at least 300,000 more.

Newspaper Office Destroyed.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 3.—Fire which started at 2 o'clock this morning destroyed the plant of the Buffalo Evening Times, the loss being estimated at $200,000. The Times, which is democratic, is published by Norman E. Mack, democratic national committeeman, who established the paper in 1873. The building, which was four stories high, was completely gutted. Nine linotype machines and two new presses, installed a few weeks ago, were ruined by the heat. The loss is complete. At 5 o'clock the fire was under control, previous to which time the firemen fought hard to save the Courier Company's lithographic plant and Lundy's Hotel, adjoining the Times building on either side. They sustained considerable damage from heat, water and smoke. Until Mr. Mack can rebuild his plant, the Times will be published on the presses of the Morning Express.

Affairs in Spain.

Madrid, April 3—It is stated today that the reports sent out yesterday in regard to the discovery of an anarchist plot at Lebrij, near Seville, to assassinate King Alfonso on the occasion of the visit of members of the royal family to Seville during Holy Week, are entirely without foundation.

Postoffice Robbers.

Philadelphia, April 3.—A gang of safe blowers believed to be the same that robbed the Bridgeport postoffice on Saturday, securing $275, and made off in a team which they stole from a farmer, descended on Westville early this morning, and after being repulsed in their attempt to loot the postoffice in that place, entered the office of the Gloucester Grain & Dairy Feed Company, and took $3.55. The wife of the postmaster was aroused from her sleep at 3 o'clock this morning by a noise in the rear of the postoffice building. Calling her husband, the latter took his revolver and from an upper window fired a shot at the man who stood guard. He returned the fire sending three bullets at the postmaster. One lodged in the window sill, within an inch of its mark. The entire town was aroused, but before anyone could give chase, the men had disappeared.

Threatened Strike in England.

London, April 3—A serious situation has developed in Lancashire as the result of the decision reached by the 250,000 workers in the cotton mills to demand a 5 per cent increase in wages with the threat that unless it is granted, they will strike at the end of the month. The greatest consternation exists among the employers as the result of the stand taken by the workers. The mill owners declare that a strike will prove very disastrous. They have orders on hand for goods which will keep the mills busy for many months, but they declare that the advance demanded by their employees is excessive.

Messages of Congratulation.

London, April 3.—The correspondent of the Publishers Press has been given to understand that messages of congratulation on the outcome of the Algeciras conference have been exchanged by Great Britain and the Paris and Berlin governments. Germany's reply is of a more cordial nature than any communication which has passed between the two nations for a long time, and this is taken to indicate the beginning of friendlier feelings between England and Germany.

Deportation of Costa Ricans.

New York, April 3.—Tobias Seniga, who is candidate for president of Costa Rica, and his two sons were passengers on the Hamburg-American line steamer Prince August Wilhelm which arrived here today from Port Limon, Costa Rica. The warships will assemble at the Azores and will then make the trip to the United States together.

New York Stock Market.

New York, April 3.—The impression prevails that heavy profit taking was in progress in many of the most active issues all through the first hour. There was enough selling of long stock to cause recessions ranging from ½ to 1½ per cent. On the opening the reaction was intensified in importance by the continued heaviness of Consolidated Gas.

A Serious Charge.

As was stated in the Gazette, Joseph E. Krandall, who has been employed as a driver by a Washington dairyman, is under arrest charged with breaking into and entering the residence of Mrs. Janie Edwards, on upper Duke street, for the purpose of committing a felony. The complaint was made by Samuel Edwards a son of Mrs. Edwards, and Krandall was arrested in Washington yesterday morning and subsequently brought to this city. It is alleged by young Edwards that Krandall, who is only about twenty years of age, went to his house Saturday night, entered under protest, and forced his way into Mrs. Edwards' room with felonious intent. Krandall denies the accusation, and claims that he was at the Edwards home Sunday night, and when accused of the crime with which he is charged by Mrs. Edwards agreed son to accompany him to police headquarters. His proposition was not accepted, he states. Krandall also states that he and Edwards were friends, and that he was a frequent visitor at the latter's house. The accused has retained Mr. Edmund Burke, of Washington, to defend him, and, by agreement with State's Attorney Brent, the case has been set for hearing in the Police Court Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The Fishing Season.

The weather has been springlike, and fishermen are entertaining hopes of the appearance of shad and herring in fresh water within the next few days. But few so far have reached points beyond brackish water, and receipts have consequently been limited. The Norfolk, Baltimore and river steamers are carrying fish to Washington and there is a gradual increase in arrivals at that place. But few are landed in Alexandria, however, and so far none have come to Fishtown. Occasionally merchants receive small jags which are soon disposed of. Prices are weakening slowly. Shad are being sold in market at from 30 to 50 cents for buck and 60 to 75 cents for the largest roe, herring at 40 cents a dozen, fine white perch at 10 to 12½ cents a pound, rockfish at 10 to 15 cents, and black bass at 15 cents. Fishtown is gradually awakening. A few people were moving about the premises this morning and the work of setting things in order is in progress. Some fishermen were engaged in preparing nets and others in putting small boats in a condition for service. With a continuation of present meteorological condition it will not be long before the first fruits of the season will begin to arrive.

Crowley was drowned from the deck of the Estelle Randall on the night of July 14, after he and Randall had quarreled. It was charged that he jumped into the river, crazed with fright, while Randall was searching the boat for him.

Opera House.

"The Village Fool," A. Q. Scammon's comedy, was produced at the Opera House last night, a small audience being present. The comedy was in four acts and was well presented. The principal role was that of "Ninnie Noggins," which was well portrayed. Den Howe, who played the part was certainly a supple man for his age, as he is now 72 years of age. TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 3, 1906.

A Trying Moment.

Battling with adverse currents of air, which were blowing him directly in front of an Illinois Central express train, near Chicago, as he descended 5,000 feet from a balloon to the earth in a flimsy parachute, William Mattery, a French aeronaut, on Sunday fought for his life while 5,000 people watched the struggle. The engineer of the train saw the aeronaut less than 200 feet in the air above him, descending directly before his train. He applied the airbrakes, but knew that unless Mattery conquered the air currents he was powerless to save him from death. The aeronaut fought with every muscle in his body. He swung himself back and forth on his little trapeze, kicked and made every effort possible to swerve his parachute away from the path of the train. Suddenly, the parachute sank quickly to the ground, just as the train rushed by. Thousands of persons ran to the scene, expecting to find the mangled body of the balloonist. The parachute was crushed, but Mattery, by flinging himself from it at the last moment, had escaped death under the engine by two feet. He rolled down an embankment and arose unhurt physically but suffering from the strain through which he had passed. Mattery and W. H. McKinney, another aeronaut, had entered into a balloon race. The winner of the novel contest was to be the one who remained in the air longest. A $1,500 purse, the contribution of Chicago aeronauts, was the reward to Mattery, the winner.

Five Million Terminal.

It was announced in Norfolk yesterday that the Atlanta Coast Terminal Company, which recently bought for $400,000 a large water frontage adjoining the Seaboard Air Line piers at Portsmouth, will spend $5,000,000 in building thereon a terminal for the joint use of railways and steamers, and, in connection with this, will operate a new ferry between Norfolk and Portsmouth, which shall carry cars, as well as vehicles and foot passengers, across in three minutes. The plans as prepared call for one of the finest terminals in this country. It is hinted that the street cars of the two cities and those of the proposed electric lines to Smithfield and Suffolk will be transferred by the ferry. As practically all the electric lines in Norfolk are controlled by the Williams-Middendorf interest, that interest is supposed to be behind the terminal and ferry projects. The water-front property is know to have been acquired by banking interests in Norfolk which affiliate with the Baltimore-Richmond interest mentioned. The Portsmouth City Council and Chamber of Commerce indorsed the last night.

Danger From The Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of Coughs and Colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. Geo Walls, of Forest City, Me., writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends them. It prevents Pneumonia, cures LaGrippe, gives wonderful relief in Asthma and Hay Fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off Consumption. Coughs and Colds 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Trial bottle free.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton and Company.

Can you believe yousenses?

When two of them, taste and smell, having been impaired if not utterly destroyed, by Nasal Catarrh, are fully restored by Ely's Cream Balm, can you doubt that this remedy deserves all that has been said of it by the thousands whom it has cured? It is applied directly to the affected air-passages and begins its healing work at once. Why not get it today? All druggists, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York, on receipt of 50 cents.

THREE FACTS

For Sick Women To Consider

FIRST.—That almost every operation in our hospitals performed upon women becomes necessary through neglect of such symptoms as backache, irregular and painful periods, displacements of the female organs, pain in the side, burning sensation in the stomach, bearing-down pains, nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness.

SECOND.—The medicine that holds the record for the largest number of absolute cures of female ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It regulates, strengthens and cures diseases of the female organism as nothing else can.

For thirty years it has been helping women to be strong, curing backache, nervousness, kidney troubles, inflammation of the female organs, weakness and displacements, regulating the periods perfectly and overcoming their pains. It has also proved itself invaluable in preparing women for childbirth and the change of life.

THIRD.—The great volume of unsolicited and grateful testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time published by permission, give absolute evidence of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women.—Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. From symptoms given, your trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years under her direction and since her decease she has been advising sick women free of charge. Out of the vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Surely, any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

Disorderly Strikers.

Renewed strike disorders have occurred in the mining region of Lens, France. The strikers of Ganger yesterday destroyed a house with dynamite. There were no casualties. At Fouquieres and Hames the strikers erected barricades, which were charged by cavalry. One striker was wounded. Railroad employes yesterday found four dynamite cartridges on the tracks over which trains with troops on board were passing. Soldiers are now guarding the tracks. Four thousand strikers marched yesterday at Brusy, Department of the Nord. Troops and miners who had refused to strike barricaded the roads and drove back the strikers. There are now about 41,000 men on strike. The companies have notified the strikers that they will not have any further interviews with them. Striking waiters at Toulon yesterday attacked a nonunionist, and the latter stabbed and killed a striker in a cafe. The police and soldiers with difficulty prevented the strikers from wrecking the building. The employes of the government arsenal threaten to join the strikers.

Ex-Senator Hill

Former United States Senator David B. Hill is a sojourner for a brief time in Richmond. He arrived Sunday night and will remain until today. He has been on a two-months health trip to Camden, S. C., and says he is much improved in health, but not entirely well, and is making his return to New York by easy stages. He declined to discuss political conditions and declared he was out of politics. "I shall always vote, however," he added to that remark. He called on Governor Swanson at the Capitol yesterday morning. They were in Congress together and are good friends. He also called on Lieutenant Governor Ellyson and later visited the residence of Robert E. Lee and other Confederate show places. Mr. Hill's private secretary, Mr. P. J. Manwiller, in his only traveling companion. They go from Richmond to Washington and will spend several days in the national capital. Mr. Hill took lunch with the Governor and Mrs. Swanson and was the guest of honor at a dinner at the Governor's mansion last night.
